

Foundation / minusSet:

Article

minusSet:

Removes each object in another given set from the receiving set, if present.

Overview

For each object in `otherSet` that is present in the set, this method decrements the associated count. If the count for an object is decremented to 0, the object is removed from the set.

See Also

Related Documentation

`class` `NSCountedSet`

A mutable, unordered collection of distinct objects that may appear more than once in the collection.