Web Service Endpoint

Update Merchant Metadata

Update the merchant token's notification URL.

Apple Pay Merchant Token Management API 1.0.12+

URL

POST `https://apple-pay-gateway.apple.com/paymentservices/v1/merchantId/{merchantId}`

Path Parameters

merchantId
string
(Required) The merchant identifier issued by Apple.
Maximum length: 64

Header Parameters

Accept
string
The response format the client expects, for example, `application/json` for JSON.

Content-Type
string
(Required) The format of the data sent in the request body, for example, `application/json` for JSON payloads.

x-request-id
string
(Required) The header used to uniquely identify the request.

HTTP Body

UpdateMerchant MetadataRequest
The request body you use to specify the updated merchant metadata.
Content-Type: application/json

Response Codes

200   OK

Successful response.

400   Bad Request

ErrorResponse   Bad request.

Content-Type: application/json

403   Forbidden

ErrorResponse   Authorization failed.

Content-Type: application/json

404   Not Found

ErrorResponse   Resource not found.

Content-Type: application/json

500   Internal Server Error

ErrorResponse   Internal server error.

Content-Type: application/json

Discussion

The merchant server calls this API to update the value of a merchant token's `token NotificationURL`. This URL receives life-cycle and metadata update notifications from the Apple Pay servers about the Apple Pay merchant token.

See Also

Merchant token notification handling

📄   Receiving and handling merchant token notifications

Implement an endpoint to receive and handle merchant token life-cycle updates from Apple Pay.

`Send Merchant Token Event`

Receive and handle merchant token life-cycle updates from Apple Pay.