Article

intersectSet:

Removes from the receiving set each object that isn't a member of another given set.

Overview

For each object in the set that is not present in `otherSet`, this method decrements the associated count. If the count for an object is decremented to 0, the object is removed from the set.

See Also

Related Documentation

`class` NSCountedSet

A mutable, unordered collection of distinct objects that may appear more than once in the collection.